A Case Management Conference (CMC) was held in person on June 30, 2015, at 9:54 A.M., in Vancouver.

[1] The Claimant shall serve two experts reports, prepared by Kent-Macpherson and McElhanney Consulting respectively, on the Respondent by the end of the day today, June 30, 2015.

[2] The Respondent shall have 60 days plus one week to file its responsive report to the two expert reports received from the Claimant, which is on or before September 8, 2015.

[3] A pre-hearing conference for the hearing scheduled for October 12-23, 2015 will be held on Friday, September 18, 2015, jointly with the Siska Indian Band v. HMQ, SCT-7002-14, in person in Vancouver, if possible. By this time, the Parties are to know the dates on which each witness and expert will be testifying. Priority is to be given to the experts.

[4] The Claimant shall file its supplementary report on or before September 22, 2015.

[5] The Parties will advise the Tribunal if they require a CMC to resolve any issues related to the Will-Says and Will-Asks.

[6] The October hearing will include oral history and the examination of experts. The Parties shall discuss and advise the Tribunal as to a shared hearing venue for the examination of the experts, and what evidence will be heard at which venue. Oral history will be heard in the Siska and Skuppah communities respectively.

[7] The Parties shall discuss with their respective clients whether the oral history and expert testimony should be video recorded if by the end of September Justice Slade has not been appointed to the Tribunal for a further term.
