ENDORSEMENT

Honourable Harry Slade, Chairperson

A Case Management Conference (CMC) was held by teleconference on April 16, 2019, at 4:30 P.M., Eastern Time (Ottawa).

[1] The Parties advised that they are engaged in negotiations for resolution of the Claim.

[2] The Parties advised that the validity of the Claim has, subject to entering a written agreement, been accepted by the Respondent.

[3] Upon the Claimant accepting a formal offer to negotiate from the Respondent, the Parties intend to sign an agreement to enter into negotiations regarding compensation.

[4] Prior to the next CMC, the Parties shall file a joint brief or separate briefs advising the Tribunal of:

- (a) the Respondent's intentions with respect to filing an Amended Response in response to the Claimant's Amended Declaration of Claim filed on January 21, 2016;
- (b) the status of the agreement on validity;
- (c) the status of the Common Book of Documents and Agreed Statement of Facts; and,
- (d) a request for a stay of proceedings to allow for negotiation of compensation;

[5] Honourable Harry Slade informed the Parties of the need, in the event that they agree on the validity of the Claim, for a Consent Order setting out the grounds, and the advisability of specifying the agreed upon bases for compensation, under the Specific Claims Tribunal Act.

[6] The next CMC will be held by teleconference on July 26, 2019, at 1:00 P.M., Eastern Time (Ottawa).

[7] Either Party, or both, may, if desired, request of the Registry that a CMC be convened at an earlier date.
